

Where in the World

Key Vocabulary

Our Stories

Habitat

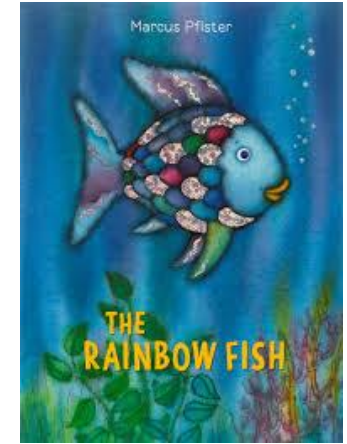

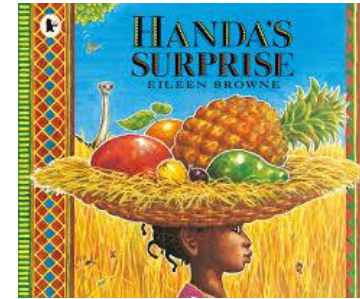

Desert

Jungle

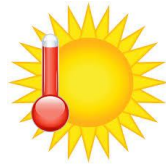

Arctic

Farm

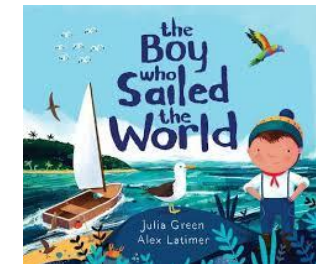

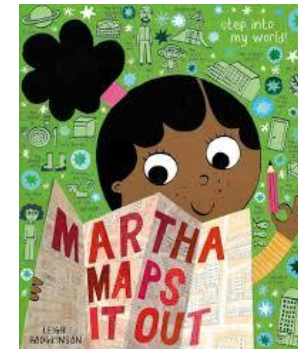

Wild

Hot

Cold

Environment

During our 'Where in the World' topic, children will explore where different animals live around the world and the environments they call home. We will learn about habitats such as jungles, oceans, deserts, farms, and cold places, and discover why animals live there. Children will begin to understand that animals need food, water, and shelter to survive, and how they are suited to their environments.